Knockoffs And Counterfeits

Several people said the quality of the products they received was less than ideal.

1. Either it was cheaply made or much smaller than depicted in the photos on the website. The latter was noted for clothing as well as general merchandise.

While most items on Temu cost much less than they do on competing sites, some items aren't as cheap. If you're considering making a purchase, look at other vendors before buying.

If you're comfortable with the risk of getting low-quality items and don't mind the longer shipping times, it may be worth signing up for Temu. Just understand that shopping in the platform almost always means you're getting generic items, and don't assume the low prices always represent a good deal.
