The origins of the card game are debatable, but most believe it was created in the 1400s by a man named Felix Falguiere or Felix Falguiere.

Cards were dealt by four dealers, each player could be the banker, and players could place bets against fellow players and against the house.

From Italy, baccarat travelled to France, where it was known as Chemin de Fer, or "Chemy";.

King Charles VIII and his noblemen loved the game, and Chemin de Fer remained a hit with the French aristocracy for centuries.

Baccarat also caught on in England, where Ian Fleming learned how to play the game before creating the world's most famous baccarat player: James Bond.

As more time passed, baccarat cropped up in South America and in the Caribbean, where under the name of Punto Banco, it adapted to the local culture.

The main changes included the players playing against the house only, and the banker role being reserved solely for the casino.

In the late 1950s, Tommy Renzoni shipped the game over to the Sands casino in Las Vegas, and the rest, as we say, is history.
