Now, we get it.
"Affordable" is subjective.
Depending on your vibe (or various vibe shifts), affordable designer bags range from sleek and minimal wardrobe essentials to colorful and embellished accents. Some are unmistakable and splashy, while others are subtly printed-shout-out to our quiet luxury lovers. Our top picks:
Like with fine and demi-fine jewelry, there's also the question of what brand to invest your coins in.
The great news? You can score a bag from these labels for less than $1,000. They're usually smaller in size or crafted from less precious materials like raffia (a dream for summer) or rubber (take that, rain). Whatever you go for, rest assured, each one is a classic.
Those odds are pretty short.
You basically get back three and a half times more than you bet.
If your bet wins, you'll get your $70 (Win bet) + $20 (Stake) + $17.
\$100 $\times \frac{7}{2}$ = \$350.
If your each-way bet wins, you can add together the win bet column and place bet column to get the correct amount.
 $\frac{7}{2}$ Implied Odds
If you bet $2, and your prediction is correct, you'll receive $7 in profit, plus your original $2 stake back.
To calculate the implied odds, you'd use the following formula:
